Dream River Ranch

Good for the Heart

Dream River Ranch

Located along the Oregon Trail

Our parcel of high desert prairie sits near the base of the Danskin Mountain Range and is home to pronghorn antelope, cottontail and jack rabbits, prairie chickens, quail, pheasants, birds of prey, hummingbirds and dragonflies; many of which can be seen during your visit. Find peace of mind and enjoy the pleasures of simplicity in the company of a horse under the crystal blue skies of Idaho.

The shortest distance between two points is riding with a good friend.

The power of the heart is always ready to embrace what is good in life.

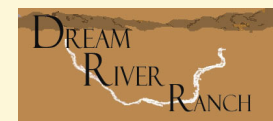

Loaner helmets and boots available.
